Thank You!

Thank you so much for attending the Jaime Jorge, “Silent Night” Christmas concert and student performance. It was a great evening for all!

Grades K-2

Our journey of learning all of the Fruit of the Spirit has come to an end! The last Fruit of the Spirit we focused on was SELF CONTROL. We read in 1 Corinthians 10:13 that we will not be tempted more than we can take. When we are tempted, God will give us a way out and help us deal with it. We will be starting a new unit in social studies. Our essential question for the unit is “where do we live?”

Grades 3-5,

Dear Parents,

We're nearing the Christmas season which means next week will be filled with several Christmas activities. We've already decked out our classroom, sang in a Christmas concert, and selected our Secret Santa's. (Please ask your child who they picked as they will be exchanging $20 gifts with them.) I know the holidays are a celebratory time of year, but it also can be quite stressful. If this gift exchange is a financial burden, let me know. We'll also be having a Christmas theme spirit week to wrap up the season. Thank you, parents, for your continued support. Blessings, Mrs. Moningka

Grades 6-8

Thank you so much for joining us for the Jaime Jorge concert and student performance! The lanterns the students made were beautiful.

Enjoy your weekend and have a happy Sabbath!
